Imaginary Jesus is the " sort-of true " story of the author Matt Mikalatos. He discovers that the Jesus he 'd been spending time with in his everyday life is not the one and true Jesus of the scriptures, but an imaginary construct. He finds himself embarked on a quest chasing after imaginary Jesuses, and running away from them, and engaged in hand-to-hand combat with them, and even involved in an inner tube race with them to determine sophisticated points of theology.
