Designed for small drama groups and schools Each of the five plays is presented first as a short story as it would appear in a magazine and then as a proper drama script. Less experienced new actors and directors may find the story version of help in understanding how to portray the scripts. The dialogue is the same in both but the story version does not need any spoiler alerts and is closer to being what the audience will feel. The dialogues have been chosen with the intention of reducing the possibility of causing offence. Special Licencing Available for Amateur Groups For genuine amateur groups and for schools (excluding professional drama schools), a perpetual performance licence will be deemed to be granted for all 5 plays if the organization purchases and retains at least 5 copies of the book. THE INTERVIEW (10 Minutes) When George applies for a job at Oberlong Industries he finds he is not the only candidate. But he is convinced his arrogance and blustering will see him through. CAN I SPEAK TO JOHN (20 Minutes) Soti was sure she had dialled the telephone number correctly. But when it turns out to be a wrong number, what happens is certainly not what she was expecting. (Based on a genuine event !) AMERICANO (35 Minutes) Helen and Gail are going to be meeting their boyfriends, Adam and Bert, in the university cafe. When they decide to test Adam's commitment to Gail, things do not happen exactly as planned. REHEARSAL TIME (15 Minutes) Patsy and Martin will be getting married soon but first there is the small issue of the wedding rehearsal. THE AUDITIONS (20 to 60 minutes - you choose !) The author of a new play decides to adapt his play to suit the actors rather than the other way around. To achieve this, the author and director audition various actors to determine the skill set of the actors who have turned up for the auditions. Unlike most plays, in this play you can choose which scenes to include based on the actors and time you have available.

Originally written for drama teachers working with students aged 9 to 18, this collection of short, snappy theater dialogues makes the perfect short break activity in any classroom, camp, or youth group situation. Students get much more out of these dialogues than just acting practice: they increase alertness, cultivate curiosity, boost literacy, and improve school attendance. The one-to-one dialogue format facilitates friendships and allows shy students to demonstrate new skills. Written by a family of drama experts, each dialogue centers around a theme related to young life: food, parents, hobbies, movies, even falling in love, to name just a few. Each dialogue is introduced with brief notes suggesting different ways of playing them at different ages and tips for adapting the dialogues to different age groups and situations. 101 Dialogues, Sketches, and Skits is part of the SmartFun Activity series from Hunter House, which includes over 25 titles that have sold more than 200,000 copies to date.

"Not too short, not too long, not hard to memorize, not hard to stage, and just the right message" -- it can be a real challenge to find uplifting dramatic material that fulfills these requirements. This collection of six award-winning scripts meets that challenge with meaningful plays that are practical, easy to produce, and touch the heart! These flexible sketches can be presented without sets or props, making them well-suited for dramatic insertions during worship. They're also useful as inspirational centerpieces for retreats, women's ministry, teen events, or outreach opportunities. The Book of Dialogue is an invaluable resource for writers and students of narrative seeking to master the art of effective dialogue. The book will teach you how to use dialogue to lay the groundwork for events in a story, to balance dialogue with other story elements, to dramatize events through dialogue, and to strategically break up dialogue with other vital elements of your story in order to capture and hold a reader's or viewer's interest in the overall arc of the narrative. Writers will find Turco's classic an essential reference for crafting dialogue. Using dialogue to teach dialogue, Turco's chapters focus on narration, diction, speech, and genre dialogue. Through the Socratic dialogue method—invented by Plato in his dialogues outlining the teachings of Socrates—Turco provides an effective tool to teach effective discourse. He notes, “Plato wrote lies in order to tell the truth. That’s what a fiction writer does and has always done.” Now it’s your turn.

“David Farmer has hit gold with 'Playful Plays: Volume One', and if volumes two to ten were available I would be ordering them immediately... The selling point of the book is its simplicity. It offers teachers an off-the-shelf, ready-to-go, high-quality rehearsal process ideal for primary-aged students... The book is very well laid out and user-friendly, and is the perfect go-to for short presentation pieces that pack a punch.” - Teaching Drama Magazine. This lively collection of eight short plays for children and young people is supported by inspirational drama games designed to bring creativity and fun to the rehearsal room. The stories are based on traditional folk-tales from countries including China, Ghana, Greece, Japan, Turkey and Scandinavia. The book is written in such a way that young people can easily pick it up and use it themselves. The plays can be performed by groups of children on their own, or under the direction of an adult. They feature performance techniques such as mime, mask, freeze frames, audience participation, live music and song. The author draws on his experience in the professional theatre world to provide helpful advice for the young director and actor including warm-ups, tips on line-learning and ideas for character development, as well as games to develop acting skills such as concentration, focus and working as an ensemble.
